

COLUMNIST

Writes two general interest columns each week for The Shorthorn Opinion page. Must be able to select topics of interest to Shorthorn readers. Also must have a readable writing style, be able to meet deadlines and be able write to assigned length. Topics and completed columns will be subject to approval of Shorthorn editors and will be subject to normal Shorthorn editing processes. The Shorthorn editor in chief will have final authority on acceptability of any column.

Applicants for this position will be asked to submit two sample columns, 250 words each, with his or her application. Must be currently enrolled at UTA.

Compensation. $10 per column.